REport – Brian Vondran

Just a reminder that our Annual-ish MVR SCCA Picnic will be held at Nelson Ledges Road Course on Tuesday, August 7th. Please feel free to bring your family and friends as all are invited. We plan to start around 7PM and will hold our World Famous “Fastest Meeting East of the Mississippi” around 8pm. Our fellow NEOhio Region members will be hosting their picnic and meeting at the same time, so I hope you come out and join us for some food and some fun.

Now, on to some other business. A couple of highlights from the upcoming month of March:

- Trans Am at Pitt Race (August 3-5) – This is the first time the series will travel to Pitt Race and race on the full track. Come support fellow MVR members David Pintaric (currently 3rd in points) and Amy Ruman (currently 6th in points).
- Regional Race at Mid Ohio (Aug 3-5) – Cincy Region’s annual IT Spectacular, always a fun event and a PDX on Friday afternoon.
- Trans Am at Mid Ohio (Aug 10-12) – Back-to-back weekends for Trans Am, which means a lot of work for the crews. Come out and support our MVR members and catch a NASCAR Xfinity race as well.
- Regional Race at Pitt Race (Aug 10-12) – Back-to-back weekends for our regional racers and corner workers as well, this one is hosted by the Steel Cities Region and they will be trying out the new SCCA Time Trial program. I don’t know a lot about the program, so I’m hoping to learn more about it and how we as SCCA members can help make it a success.

Finally, it is time to start thinking about our Tire Rack Street Survival. We will once again be hosting our Street Survival and Boardman Park on Sunday, October 7th.

August is going to be a busy month, I hope it finds you at the autocross lot, the race track, or spending time with family. I really hope you can find time to join us at Nelson Ledges for our picnic.
